

MOVED TO A STABLE WHEN DISPOSSESSED.

Mrs. Morey, Who Ignored Judge Gaynor's Order, Turned Out of Doors.

She Has Had Legal Disputes for Twelve Years, and Defied Officers and Judges.

THE FAMILY AN INTERESTING ONE.

Her Son Has Only One Leg and Rides a Bicycle, While Her Daughter Does—a Man's Work and Prefers Horse Meat to Beef.

Since noon Saturday drivers and bicycle riders who rode on the Ocean Parkway, between Prospect Park and Coney Island, were occasioned considerable speculation as to what was meant by a large pile of furniture and a mass of all kinds of household utensils and rubbish which stood in front of the Manhattan Cottages, near Coney Island Creek. For the past twelve years the Manhattan Cottages have formed the headquarters from behind which Mrs. Elizabeth Morey, at one time a dentist in West Brighton, has fought her enemies. There she defied John Y.
McKane, his policemen, constables, Justices of the Peace, and even the Supreme Court. She has been arrested many times, and sent either to Raymond Street Jail or the Kings County Penitentiary, but on each occasion she has managed to secure her release on a writ of habeas corpus.

When Mrs. Morey first went to Coney Island she had $25,000. She built the Manhattan Cottages. She also practised dentistry. The property was in constant litigation, and finally was sold under foreclosure proceedings to William Trist Bailey, the millionaire land owner of Bay-water, Far Rockaway. Mr. Bailey has spent several years and considerable money in trying to get Mrs. Morey out of the place. Each time she was evicted she managed to get back again in one mysterious way or another. She has held considerable and deputy sheriffs at bay at the point of a revolver. She had no end of trouble with her tenants to whom she leased apartments. Frequently she has broken into their rooms with an axe and driven them out for the non-payment of rent.

Mrs. Morey's family is an interesting one.
Her son, Louis, drives a hack and repairs bicycles. The boy has but one leg, the other having been cut off by a horse car passing over it. Louis made his own artificial limb, and rides a bicycle.

Nina Morey, the eldest daughter, who is about eighteen years old, is a pretty girl, but is more like a man than a woman in business. She drives a hack, owns a race horse, peddles oil in a cart on Coney Island and says she will never marry.

One day last summer the Health Department and Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals were notified by the police of the West Brighton Precinct that Nina Morey had slaughtered one of her horses and the family was eating the meat. An agent went to Manhattan Cottages and found the girl in a barn, cutting up the carcass of the horse. She frankly admitted the killing and said she preferred horse meat to beef. No action was taken in the matter.

The downfall of Mrs. Morey as occupant of the cottages came Saturday, when the woman disobeyed an order signed by Justice Gaynor, of the Supreme Court, ordering her to show up why she should not be dispossessed. She claims that by advice of her counsel, Lawyer Randall, she remained out of court. The dispossess warrant was issued and at noon her effects were put out in the street.

She takes the matter coolly and says she will continue to employ lawyers until she regains possession of the property. In the meantime she and the family have moved into their stable, where they will live until she can finish building a cottage on West First street, near West avenue.
She has taken what furniture she needs and has left the balance where it was placed by the deputy sheriff. She says the men who put it there must remove it, as she does not propose to do it.

Personally she is a well educated and intelligent woman, and her face still bears traces of former beauty. She is soft-spoken, until enraged. Five years ago Mrs.
Morey struck Dr. J. O. F. Hill, of Coney Island, in a Prospect Park & Coney Island halfway train, with the root of a tree.
She claimed the doctor had insulted her.

SAYS FRIGHT KILLED HER
Pringle Declares His Wife Died After a Visit from a Collector.

Mrs. Sarah L. Pringle's sudden death, at No. 111 Forty-third street, Brooklyn, was announced in the Journal yesterday. Her husband, James B. Pringle, has made a statement concerning her death.

He declares it was due to fright, and he holds a man named Jacob Brady as being indirectly responsible for the shock.
In May, 1895, Brady, who was collector for a debt agency, called and demanded $40 for medical services.

Mr. Pringle says the man's manner was so threatening that Mrs. Pringle, who was then an invalid, became worse and suffered a series of hemorrhages which ended her life Sunday morning.

WOODRUFF NEEDS MORE CASH.

Park Commissioner Asks the Board of Estimate for $921,000.

Park Commissioner Woodruff sent a request for $921,000 to the Brooklyn Board of Estimate yesterday. This is an increase of $220,000 over the amount allocated for park and boulevard purposes last year.

The Board thought the amount enormous and much beyond the city's means. Action was deferred until Friday so that Mr.
Woodruff might appear and explain the situation.

Accused of Robbing Organ Grinder.
Edward Rooney, of No. 124, Flushing street, Brooklyn, went to jail yesterday in default of $2,500 bail. He is accused of being implicated with James Debeito, an Italian, blackblack, in assaulting and robbing Domingo Jentiana, an aged organ grinder, a "black" man, who lives at No. 1017 Willoughby avenue, was lured into an unoccupied stable and robbed of $274.

Deer Park.
Down in "Maryland, My Maryland," there is a spot especially prepared by Nature as an ideal summer resort, for those upon whom the city has about $200,000. It is called "Deer Park," is 2,000 feet above sea level, and its atmosphere is described as "invigorating." It is only necessary to add that the favored spot is easily reached via the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and that there are hotels and cottages and every provision for the comfort and enjoyment of guests.

BOY BURGLARS CAPTURED.

In Entering Mr. Low's House They Started a Burglar Alarm and an Officer Quickly Responded.

Two boys halted in front of the vacant house at No. 184 Columbia Heights, Brooklyn, yesterday morning and looked up down to see if the coast was clear. The situation seemed satisfactory, and they pried open one of the parlor windows.

The minute they touched it a burglar alarm went off, warning the American Distriet Telegraph Company, at No. 168 Montague street, that the house had been entered.

Special officer Lynch was dispatched to the place. He entered the house quietly and went upstairs, where he discovered the boys searching the rooms, using a candle to light the way. Lynch grabbed the boys, and turned them over to Special Officer P.
V. Howard.

The prisoners were taken to the Adams Street Station. They gave the names of John J. Smith, fifteen years old, of No. 62 Henry street, and Charles Knudson, twelve years old, of No. 25 Henry street, Brooklyn. Their excuse for their burglarious operations was that they were playing "hide-and-seek." They were locked up, and the Children's Society was notified.

The house is owned by A. A. Low, Dr.
Seth Low's brother.

LONG TERMS FOR CONVICTS.

Criminals Arraigned Before Judge Aspinall Severely Dealt With.

Judge Aspinall, of Brooklyn, dealt out heavy sentences to the criminals who were before him yesterday.

The first of the batch was John Branton, who pleaded guilty to four charges of burglary and one of forgery. Branton said:
"Bad company brought me here." He was sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment in Sing Sing.

John Sullivan, who was found guilty of an infamous crime, was sentenced to fifteen years at hard labor in State Prison. Ver-tha Nevenman, of Mount Vernon, who was a waitress in a Brooklyn restaurant, was declared guilty of the crime of infanticide. Her counsel pleaded for leniency. He said the girl had been driven away from a respectable family and had fallen while working in Brooklyn. Judge Aspinall said he had looked into the girl's history, and he was of the opinion that the case was one which called for mercy. He suspended sentence and released the girl from custody. "You were deserted by a man who should have protected you," said the Judge. "He was worse than a viper, and he should be standing in your place today."

DROWNED MAN NOT KNOWN.

The Body Found Off Bowery Bay Beach Viewed by Several People.

Newtown, L. I., May 25.—The body of the man which was found yesterday off Bowery Bay Beach is in Skelton's Morgue.
In this village. Several people called at the Morgue to-day, but none of them was able to identify the body. There were two wounds on the man's head and his chest and the body was clad only in an undershirt and shoes. The doctors who examined the body yesterday say that the wounds were caused by the paddles of a steamboat.
This would indicate that the body was struck by the paddlewheel of some steamboat.

It is believed that the man was a brick handler or worked about a steamboat dock, and that he was killed by the paddlewheel clothing while at work. It is thought that the man was accidentally drowned.

TROLLEY CARS IN COLLISION.

Five Passengers Thrown Out of Their Seats to the Street.

Two Nassau Railroad cars collided on Thirty-ninth street, Brooklyn, Sunday night.
The cars, which were well filled with people, struck with great force, and five persons were thrown from their seats to the pavement.
The cars were Edward Fitzpatrick, of No. 29 Madison street, and Bernard Herzog, of No.
121 Sheriff street, New York; Annie and Nellie Forrell, of No. 22 Twentieth street, Brooklyn; and John J. Smith, of No. 62 Henry street, Brooklyn. The ladies escaped injury, but Fitzpatrick and Herzog were cut on the head and face, and taken to the Hospital, dressed the wounds.

AIMED AT THE SHYLOCKS.

Money Lenders Will Not Be Recognized Hereafter at the Post Office.

The Post Office Shylock must go. Postmaster-General Wilson has said it. Yesterday Postmaster Sullivan, of Brooklyn, received a message from Mr. Wilson instructing him to put an end to the money lending system which prevails among postal employees.

Carriers and clerks who ran short of money have been in the habit of having their salaries advanced by money lenders, who charge heavy interest. They then return to the post office and use the money orders on their salary as security. The Postmaster-General instructed Mr. Sullivan not to honor the orders hereafter.

Wanted to Die by Trolley.
John Nostrand, a Swede, aged seventy-five years, of Vernon and Webster avenues, Brooklyn, City, attempted to commit suicide this afternoon by throwing himself in front of a trolley car. The motorman succeeded in stopping the car in time to prevent it from running over the man.
Nostrand was arrested and taken to the Nostrand Precinct Station House, where he was put in a strait-jacket. It is supposed, he is insane. His wife says that he attempted to kill himself several times before. Nostrand will be examined to-morrow regarding his sanity.

Gored by a Bull.
Barport, L. I., May 25.—J. W. Avery, a well-known and wealthy farmer of Blue Point, was attacked by a vicious bull owned by him last evening, and was frightfully injured. The bull drove his horns in Avery's body and injured him so badly that he is not expected to live.

A Schooner Goes Ashore.
Orient, L. I., May 25.—The schooner Luther A. Roby went ashore this afternoon on Orient Shoal. She lies in an easy position. The vessel is light, and was on her way from Boston to New York when she grounded. She will probably get off at high tide this evening.

A HUNDRED YEARS OLD.

Some Sound Scientific Suggestions to Men and Women Who Are Looking Into the Future.

"How can I live a hundred years?" Very happy most of us would be if we only knew the secret of the centenarian's life, and now that secret has at last been discovered. A well-known scientist who made this discovery has for years past been investigating the habits of men and women who have reached advanced years. He has found that in nearly every case the people who enjoy the healthiest and happiest old age are those who make regular use of some pure stimulant.

"After middle life," he says, "the energies drop and nature requires stimulating and restoring. For this reason, old people who wish to be strong and well should use for a day pass without taking some pure stimulant which can be depended upon." This is an interesting fact, and it clearly shows that scientific men are correct when they tell us that nothing compares with a pure stimulant for building up the system.
They also tell us that the safest and best stimulant is pure malt whiskey, because it is not only a tonic but a food for the nerves and tissues. There is in fact, only one pure stimulant in existence, entirely free from alcoholization. It is known as Duffy's pure malt whiskey, and thousands of aged men and women have testified to its remarkable strengthening effects.

Elderly people who suffer from stomach ailments or any form of weakness will find great relief from taking Duffy's pure malt.
It is not an ordinary whiskey, but a pure stimulant, which contains all the properties that contribute to health and none that can injure. For this reason, in purchasing from grocers or druggists, have a care of inferior imitations and insist on getting exactly what you ask for.

INSULTED A WOMAN ON A STREET CAR.

Two Young Men of Respectable Family Arrested for Unseemly Conduct.

They Annoyed Mrs. Fields and Refused to Behave When a Policeman Warned Them.

HEAVILY FINED BY JUDGE TIGHE.

Magistrate Declared That He Purposed to Stop Such Conduct if He Had to Fill the Penitentiary to Overflowing—Other Cases.

In disposing of the cases of two young men who were arrested for acting in a disorderly manner on a Flatbush street car, Justice Tighe, of the Butler Street Court, Brooklyn, said yesterday he was determined to stop similar conduct if he had to fill the penitentiary.

The cases were of more than ordinary interest because of the family connections of the offenders. One of them was Henry Hawkes, Jr., son of the former Water Pur-veyor. His companion was Harry Forbes, the young son of George W. Forbes, the well-known broker. Forbes gave his name to the police as William H. Johnson and said he lived on Seventh avenue. His home is at No. 123 Park place, Brooklyn, which is very near Seventh avenue.

The young men were passengers on a Flatbush avenue car early yesterday morning. Mrs. Josephine Fields, of No. 82 Franklin avenue, was also a passenger. Her escort left the car after riding a few minutes. Immediately the young men, who were in a hilarious mood changed their seats, one sitting on either side of the woman.

Forbes spoke to Mrs. Fields, who informed him that she did not wish to talk to a stranger. He continued making silly remarks until Mrs. Fields said: "Young man, if you don't close your mouth I will throw you off the car."

The conductor went to the rescue and stopped the car to enable Mrs. Fields to change her seat. The men kept up a cross fire until the car reached Seventh and Flatbush avenues, where the conductor stopped it and called Patrolman Doherty.
The officer put Hawkes off the car, but he boarded it again. The presence of the officer did not alarm the young men, who it is alleged, placed their arms around the woman. Doherty grabbed the men and hauled them down to the Bergen Street Station.

Hawkes and Forbes were arraigned before Justice Tighe. The prisoners said they were sorry, but they had no recollection of what had happened. They said they had taken several drinks, which rendered them oblivious to what was going on.
The officer said he had made inquiry concerning Mrs. Fields and found that she was a woman of good repute.

Justice Tighe lectured the men severely.
Forbes asked him for leniency. He said he did not wish to reveal his identity, as it would tend to disgrace his family and injure him in the eyes of a young woman—the daughter of a public official—to whom he was engaged.

Justice Tighe fined him $100, which was paid by his father. Hawkes was fined $50, which was paid by his father. The heavier fine was imposed on Forbes, as he was the more insulting of the pair. Hawkes lives at No. 201 Prospect place.

Andrew Gilchrist, of New York, who was arrested for acting boisterously on a street car, was fined $10 on his plea of guilty.

Of late travel at night on Brooklyn street cars, especially on lines running to the suburbs, has been unpleasant, if not hazardous, on account of the riotous conduct of rowdies who crowd the cars. A woman without an escort is certain to be insulted.
The companies have made no effort to preserve order on their cars. Conductors are unable to handle their objectionable passengers.

SALOON MEN TO BE SUEED.

Hazen Company Claims to Have Been Swindled in Brooklyn.

The William H. Hazen company, of New York, threatens to bring criminal actions against fifty Brooklyn saloon keepers for defrauding it out of about $3,000 worth of liquor. Mr. Hazen says his salesmen secured orders from the men, and the goods were delivered. The company, however, has been unable to collect the money due or to secure the return of the goods.

It is claimed that certain liquor dealers make a practice of giving orders to every new concern that starts. Certain salemen, it is claimed, also take orders indiscrimi-nately merely for the purpose of getting commission. Saloon keepers, it is said, work in league with them. Mr. Hazen says there are at least one hundred saloon keepers who swindle wholesale liquor dealers.

No Strikes for Three Months.

It was announced yesterday that the Brooklyn Board of Walking Delegates has decided to order no more strikes for three months. A committee has been appointed to attend the next meeting of the Districtional Union to settle differences between the Board and that organization.

A NEW PLACE FOR MACKELLAR.

The Inspector Made Deputy Superintendent of Police in Brooklyn.

Appointed to the Newly Created Office After Thirty-two Years' Service on the Force.

HIS RECORD AN EXCELLENT ONE.

Captain Clayton Succeeds Mackellar as Inspector—Other Changes Made by Commissioner Welles—Civil Service Rules Ignored.

A number of important changes were made in the Brooklyn Police Department yesterday, and Inspector John Mackellar was promoted to the newly-created office of Assistant Superintendent.

After Mr. Mackellar had finished the routine business of the day he was called into Commissioner Welles's office and formally appointed. For the next hour he was kept busy responding to congratulations.

Captain Elias P. Clayton, of the Twenty-fourth (Coney Island) Precinct, was appointed Inspector.

Assistant Superintendent Mackellar is a native of Brooklyn, and he has been in police thirty-two years. His record is a most excellent one. He joined the Metropolitan force in 1864, and the dates of his promotion are: Sergeant, 1869; Captain, 1872; Inspector, 1884; Assistant Superintendent, May 25, 1896.

Inspector Clayton is a native of New York, and has been on the force since April, 1872. He became a Captain in December, 1894.

Commissioner Welles ordered the Inspectors to make their headquarters at station houses hereafter, instead of at Police Headquarters.
Inspector McLoughlin will have his headquarters at the Fifth Avenue Station, Inspector Murphy at the Grant Street Station, Inspector Brennan at the Gates Avenue Station, and Inspector Clayton at the Lee Avenue Station.

Sergeant David Lawson has been appointed commanding sergeant of the Coney Island Precinct. He is billed for a vacant position. Commissioner Welles avoids the Civil Service law in the matter of captaincies, by placing Republican sergeants in charge of precincts for three months, at the end of which time a special law allows him to raise the favorites to the rank of captain. Every captain he has appointed slipped into position in this way.

It is probable that Detective Sergeant James Reynolds will be placed in charge of the Detective Bureau, which, in the language of Commissioner Welles, is called "The Bureau of Criminal Investigation and Information."

TRIED TO DODGE A TROLLEY.

Nine-Year-Old Boy Struck by the Fender and Hurled Away.

Harry McGoldrick, nine years old, living with his parents at No. 251 Bedford avenue, Williamsburg, narrowly escaped death late yesterday afternoon. The boy with a number of others was playing at Bedford avenue and North Sixth street, when McGoldrick attempted to run across the street in front of trolley car No. 3401, of the Crosstown Line.

The car was stopped by the fender with force, but both ankles were fractured.
The fender hurled the boy several feet.
Ambulance Surgeon Steinberg removed him to the Eastern District Hospital.

German Catholics Adjourn.

The convention of the German Roman Catholic societies of New York State, which began Sunday morning, was brought to a close last night with an entertainment and banquet at Military Hall, Charles and Leonard streets, Williamsburg. Yesterday morning the delegates paraded through the principal streets of the Sixteenth Ward.
The following new officers were chosen:
John Engels, president; Louis G. Froehner, first vice-president; J. Waldkerch, second vice-president; J. Schneider, corresponding secretary; J. Reidman, financial secretary; J. Greenfield, treasurer; Executive Committee—Joseph Zoll, J. Kaufman and G.
Kluger.

WENT TO COURT TO DANCE.

Simon Hirsch Caused Another Scene, and Was Sent to Jail for Five Days.

Simon Hirsch, an aged Hebrew, living at
No. 146 Attorney street, New York, who,
through an interpreter, last Saturday told the police of the Clynier Street Station, Williamsburg, that he had been robbed of $1,000 Monday last by two strange men at Berry street and Broadway, was sent to jail for five days yesterday by Justice Goetting.

Hirsch visited the Court House yesterday and began to dance in the corridor. A crowd of court spectators gathered about him and urged him on. One of the court officers arrested the man and arraigned him before the Magistrate.

Hirsch is believed to be demented. On Sunday he drove up to the Clynier Street Police Station with an express wagon containing his household effects, and insisted on moving in and making the place his home. The police had some difficulty in driving him away. Hirsch's sanity will be inquired into.

BEGGED TO BE COMMITTED.

Ada Barker Sent to the House of the Good Shepherd at Her Own Request.

Ada Barker, an attractive nineteen-year-old girl, yesterday visited the Lee Avenue Police Court, Williamsburg, and asked Justice Goeetting to send her to the House of the Good Shepherd.

The young woman told the magistrate she had served a term of six months in the institution, and since her release had tried to find employment, but had failed.
Herself sick at heart and tired of the world, she begged, "and want to go to some place where I can have comfort and rest."

She said she was an orphan and had no kinsfolk. The magistrate drew up the commitment and handed it to the young woman to carry herself to the institution.
Her face brightened as she took the paper.
She reached the Home at 4 o'clock.

A YOUNG WIFE'S COMPLAINT.

Mrs. Lee, Who Was Married in January Last, Now Seeks a Separation.

Flushing, L. I., May 25.—Lawyer John J.
Trapp to-day served papers in a suit for separation, brought by Abina G. Lee, of this place, against her husband, Peter Lee.
The complaint it is stated that the couple were married in January last, in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, by Rev.
Michael J. Pavell. They have not lived happily together. Mrs. Lee alleges that her husband has treated her cruelly. She says that on one occasion, while intoxicated, he attempted to shoot her. Mrs. Lee says that her husband is worth nearly $50,000 and she wants suitable provision for her maintenance, as well as the costs of the action.

The case will likely come up at the next term of court in Long Island City.

MRS. SCHMITT'S BIG VERDICT.

Jury Awards Her $25,000 for the Loss of Her Husband.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Schmitt, of No. 12 New Henry street, Brooklyn, yesterday secured a verdict for $25,000 against the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, of New York, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn. The verdict is one of the largest ever given in a damage suit.

Mrs. Schmitt sued the company for $100, 000 for causing the death of her husband, Frederick Schmitt, who was killed by an elevator in the company's building, No. 3 Madison avenue.

German Catholics Adjourn.

The convention of the German Roman Catholic societies of New York State, which began Sunday morning, was brought to a close last night with an entertainment and
banquet at Military Hall, Charles and Leonard streets, Williamsburg. Yesterday morning the delegates paraded through the principal streets of the Sixteenth Ward.
The following new officers were chosen:
John Engels, president; Louis G. Froehner,
first vice-president; J. Waldkerch, second vice-president; J. Schneider, corresponding

WENT TO COURT TO DANCE.

Simon Hirsch Caused Another Scene,
and Was Sent to Jail for Five Days.

Simon Hirsch, an aged Hebrew, living at
No. 146 Attorney street, New York, who,
through an interpreter, last Saturday told
the police of the Clynier Street Station, Williamsburg, that he had been robbed of $1,000 Monday last by two strange men at Berry street and Broadway, was sent to jail for five days yesterday by Justice Goetting.

BEGGED TO BE COMMITTED.

Ada Barker Sent to the House of the Good Shepherd at Her Own Request.

Ada Barker, an attractive nineteen-year-
old girl, yesterday visited the Lee Avenue Police Court, Williamsburg, and asked
Justice Goeetting to send her to the House of the Good Shepherd.

The young woman told the magistrate
she had served a term of six months in
the institution, and since her release had
tried to find employment, but had failed.
world, she begged, "and want to go to some place where I can have comfort and
rest."

She said she was an orphan and had no kinsfolk. The magistrate drew up the
commitment and handed it to the young woman to carry herself to the institution.
Her face brightened as she took the paper.
She reached the Home at 4 o'clock.

Hirsch visited the Court House yesterday
and began to dance in the corridor. A crowd of court spectators gathered about
him and urged him on. One of the court
officers arrested the man and arraigned him
before the Magistrate.
